

Client records, scheduling, notes, and billing, together at last.

Most care management practices run on paper, spreadsheets, a shared calendar, and an accounting package. Nothing connects, so the office re-keys, and the people doing the visits have no visibility into the system at all. Seniorverse Care Flow puts the whole practice in one system, with a mobile app for the care managers in the field.

WHO IT'S FOR

Care management agencies and independent care managers who bill for their time: an office that schedules, documents, and bills, and care managers in the field.

WHAT'S INCLUDED

Client records

Contacts, care team, medications, documents, and history for every client, reachable from the office or the road by everyone who needs them.

Visits in the mobile app

See today's visits, check in and out, and record the visit if the client agrees. The note is drafted from the recording, and the time is already logged.

Schedule, tasks, and messages

One calendar for the office and the field, tasks that carry the follow-up, and messages that land in the client record.

Time to billing

Every logged hour lands in billing review with its rate. Review, lock the period, invoice your clients, and collect payment.

Forms, documents, and reports

Assessments and agreements with signatures, client documents in folders, and reports on hours, clients, and billing.
